PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues,

Another year has come and gone, and I hope that all of you have had some time to reflect on everything that has happened. In particular, I hope you have time to reflect on your work and your career. However, for as frequently as life seems boring right now, with limited opportunity for adventure or spontaneity, it also feels like there is no free time. Maybe that is just being an adult.

When I talk about my work, I am happy to say that I enjoy doing the work that I do, I'm thrilled to practice in beautiful Larimer County, and I'm motivated and inspired by people, both the attorneys and the public, with whom I work. For me, practicing law in Northern Colorado is a dream come true. Being president of the LCBA was something I'd looked forward to for years and the past year has been great. Sure, my year wasn't what I'd expected, without the social gatherings and professional events, there was less to organize and less to participate in. However, I did get the chance to learn more about some of my favorite people, the attorneys who practice in Larimer County, Interactions with the members of the Bar are growth opportunities because, in my experience and contrary to public perception, thoughtfully practicing the law makes us keener to humanity's emotions and many other nuances of life. How wonderful that we have the chance to grow through our work. When the LCBA gets back to traditional event and when you feel safe participating, I encourage you to get involved and learn about our practice community. I am extremely excited that we will all get to better know our current Vice President, Kara Clark, in the coming year.

Please stay involved by joining us for the Spring Term Day business meeting on Friday, March 5. This meeting will be a hybrid format, you may attend in person or remotely. Following the business meeting, at 11:00 a.m., there will be a one-hour CLE presentation by CBA President Jessica Brown—Navigating Leadership Pathways as Diverse Attorneys. The CLE will be remote, but in person attendees can stay at the Jury Assembly Room to attend it as well.

ACCESS TO JUSTICE COMMITTEE

Welcome to a new year! The Access to Justice Committee is happy to provide the updated 2021 Modest Means List. This will be available to litigants that avail themselves to help at the Court Resource Center. We kindly ask that all attorneys who hand out a copy of the modest means list discard their old or outdated list and replace it with the current list.

We congratulate the Honorable Chief Judge Blanco on her appointment as Chief Judge and look forward to working with her on the ATJ committee at the local and state levels. Her support and engagement are deeply appreciated. In light of the new appointment, we have rearranged the ATJ Committee meetings to better align with the Judge's availability. Moving forward, the Access to Justice Committee Meetings will be the first month of each quarter on the last Friday of the month over the lunch hour. ALL ARE INVITED TO ATTEND!

The dates are as follows:

April 30 @ 12:00 pm (via Zoom currently)

July 30 @ 12:00 pm (via Zoom currently)

October 29 @ 12:00 pm (via Zoom currently)

We have also compiled a list of the local resources available to litigants in the area. This list is available on the ATJ website: <https://www.larimerbar.org/access-to-justice-self-help-center>

Sincerely,
The ATJ Committee
